

SEASHELL INQUIRY LAB

1. Each person in your group picks one seashell from the container. Look carefully at the seashell you have chosen and make as many observations about it as you can. Use your senses to describe how the shells feel and look. Use the space below to make a bubble map to describe the shell you have selected as completely as you can.

2. Make a sketch of the shell you selected.